Quality of the Microfiche Reproduction

Micromedia Limited maintains the highest standards for micrographic reproduction. Attempts are made to obtain the best quality print version to microfilm. However, there are some printing styles, colours and graphic layout styles (including maps, graphs and tables) which do not reproduce well. Because of the value of the original document, Micromedia has filmed it recognizing that it may not be as easy to read as the original document.

Some pages have been filmed twice to improve the clarity of the reproduction. Consult both reproductions to ensure that all of the original text is read.

STATEMENTS OF OFFICIAL RESULTS BY ELECTORAL DIVISION 51

2000 PROVINCIAL CONFIRMATION PROCESS

Overview

The Register of Electors was updated through a door-to-door Confirmation Process in the period from August 26 to September 11, 2000 under the authority of Section 11(2)(c) of the Election Act. The activity was conducted in order to provide an updated List of Electors to the registered political parties in the fourth year following the 1997 General Election, in accordance with Section 16(1)(b) of the Election Act. Lists of Electors were made available in both paper and electronic format.

Elector information collected during the November 1996 general enumeration formed the basis of the permanent Register of Electors. The Register is an electronic database containing elector information, which is continuously updated and used to prepare Lists of Electors, when required. Prior to the Confirmation Process, the Register of Electors was updated through direct elector request, and through information provided by Alberta Vital Statistics, which facilitated the deletion of deceased electors from the Register.

Additional sources of electronic information will be evaluated in the future for possible use in updating elector data.

Mapping Activities

Elector information was collected based on the boundaries described in the Electoral Divisions Act. Although the electoral division boundaries were unchanged since the 1997 General Election, revisions were made to the polling subdivision boundaries by provincial Returning Officers to accommodate changes in population and communities of interest. A mapping review took place from October to November 1998, and final adjustments were made in July 2000, just prior to the commencement of the Confirmation Process.

Conduct of the Process

For the first time, Lists of Electors were prepared using information that had been collected for a previous electoral event. Confirmation Officials went door-to-door to confirm that elector information contained in the Register was accurate. Additions, deletions and revisions were recorded at the same time. This streamlined process reduced the amount of information that many electors were required to provide. It also reduced the information that had to be collected, data entered, and verified following the Confirmation Process. This approach allowed for increased timeliness of the project and decreased the likelihood of error. It also provided a quantifiable standard to judge the progress of Confirmation Officials. Additional effort was directed to areas in which reduced elector populations were noted.

The goal in the Confirmation Process was to make contact with electors in 95% of the residences across the province. This goal was met and, in some electoral divisions, exceeded. Confirmation Officials visited each residence at least three times, if necessary. Electors who were not contacted were left a "We Missed You" card asking them to contact the Confirmation Official for inclusion in the Register, and on subsequent Lists of Electors.

Electors who provided information were left a "Thank You" card which advised them of the purpose of the data collection, including the possibility that their information could be shared with municipal and federal electoral agencies for electoral purposes. The cards also provided the Returning Officer's name and telephone number to provide electors with the opportunity to ask questions or voice concerns.

Some electors voiced the opinion that names collected during the November 1996 general enumeration should have remained on subsequent Lists of Electors. However, it was decided that electors who did not confirm their information during the Confirmation Process would have their names deleted from the Register of Electors and subsequent Lists. This policy was indicated on the "We Missed You" cards left at residences where electors were not contacted.

The decision proved to be a sound one, based on final results of the data collection. It was discovered that information for only one in three electors was confirmed without any revision being necessary. Including the names of the ninety thousand electors that could not be contacted, instead of deleting them, would have resulted in approximately sixty thousand incorrect entries in the Register of Electors, based on the outcome experienced.

Challenges

It is always a challenge to raise, train and manage a workforce of close to five thousand people. This challenge was ably addressed by the Returning Officers using standardized training prepared by Elections Alberta.

Many electors are very conscious of personal security, so Confirmation Officials' identification was designed to be easily visible by a resident elector looking through a window. Unique identification was assigned to each Confirmation Official to allow for follow-up where necessary.

An increasing number of housing developments, especially apartments, restricts access to anyone other than residents. The Election Act, at Section 26, provides legislated access for entry by Confirmation Officials. Even so, gaining access is sometimes difficult, especially if non-resident building managers are not available.

Even in residences with ready access, it can be difficult to contact electors. The hours that people are available at home are often very limited. This made it difficult for some Confirmation Officials to successfully contact electors at the approximate two hundred residences to which they were assigned.

These problems are sometimes compounded in rural areas, where the significant distance between residences requires an additional time commitment on the part of Confirmation Officials. Poor weather and road conditions contributed to make this a difficult task in some rural areas.

While the concept of collecting elector data door-to-door has some inherent difficulties, direct elector contact is still a very effective method to collect timely, accurate information. It is also an extremely equitable method of List of Elector development, since each residence is visited and no elector groups are overlooked.

Partnerships with Municipalities

In June 1999, the Chief Electoral Officer contacted all city municipalities in the province to explore the possibility of collaborating to collect elector data. Many municipalities collect information similar to that required for List of Elector preparation when civic census data is collected.

Two municipalities collected elector information for consolidation into the Register. Data was collected by census workers in April 2000 in the City of Red Deer, and in May 2000 in the section of the Municipal District of Wood Buffalo that formerly encompassed the City of Fort McMurray. The elector information was passed to provincial Returning Officers for data entry in both municipalities.

Residents of both municipalities were informed of the purpose of the data collection, including the sharing arrangement, in accordance with the intent of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

Partnership with Elections Canada

Updated elector data was shared with Elections Canada, in accordance with Section 11(7) of the Election Act. An agreement was concluded in October 2000, which allows Elections Alberta to share Register of Electors data with Elections Canada for electoral purposes. In accordance with the contract, $750,000 was received from the federal electoral agency and deposited to the General Revenue Fund of Alberta.

Revisions obtained during the November 2000 federal general election were not integrated into the Provincial Lists of Electors. Although a sharing agreement was in place, elector data contained in the National Register of Electors could not be incorporated into the provincial Register due to legislative differences regarding residency requirements. There is a six-month residency requirement in the provincial legislation which is not reflected in the federal legislation. Therefore, some electors would appear on the Federal Lists of Electors who are not eligible for inclusion on Provincial Lists of Electors.

The possibility of receiving updated elector data from the National Register of Electors, managed by Elections Canada, will be explored in the future to facilitate electronic updating of Alberta's Register.

Timeline

A Confirmation of elector information took place in Edmonton-Highlands from March 8 to March 20, 2000. Elector information was updated to prepare a List of Electors for a possible by-election following the February 2, 2000 resignation of the sitting Member.

Elector information was collected by census workers, in conjunction with census data, in the electoral divisions of Red Deer-North and Red Deer-South in April 2000.

Elector information was collected by census workers, in conjunction with census data, in the electoral division of Fort McMurray in May 2000.

A Confirmation of elector information took place in Lacombe-Stettler from May 27 to June 10, 2000 to assess the effectiveness of the process and resources in a rural area.

Returning Officers were appointed by Order in Council to conduct the Confirmation Process. Training sessions were held in the first half of August 2000 to prepare them for their responsibilities in managing the data collection and data entry process.

The Confirmation Process commenced on August 26, 2000 and, in thirty-four electoral divisions, concluded on September 11. In twenty-nine electoral divisions, the Confirmation Process continued until September 18 to allow Confirmation Officials one extra weekend to contact electors. This was necessary due to staffing issues and other circumstances beyond the control of the Returning Officers.

Returning Officers in the following fifteen electoral divisions extended the data collection period after consultation with the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer. Extensions were granted where the data collection was not sufficiently thorough to meet the required standards.

Points of Interest

Confirmation Officials conducted their door-to-door activities singly, rather than with partners, unless it was decided that a second Confirmation Official was needed for reasons of personal security. The Office of the Chief Electoral Officer provided specific instruction for those Confirmation Officials who worked alone and there were no reports of difficulties relating to this employment arrangement.

Over 630,000 electors indicated that their address and personal information held in the Register was correct and could be confirmed without any changes. In effect, only one-third of overall Register data was still correct after the four years between the previous enumeration and the 2000 Confirmation Process.

Over 400,000 electors remained at the same address but indicated that changes were needed to their personal information. Confirmation Officials recorded changes to names, dates of birth, telephone numbers, and genders.

Over 434,000 electors were deleted from the address at which they were recorded in the Register.

Over 776,000 electors were added to the Lists of Electors or were recorded at a new address. They included electors who had turned eighteen, who had attained the citizenship or residency requirements, and those who had been missed at the 1996 enumeration. Electors at over 182,000 new residences provided information to Confirmation Officials.

Lists of Electors for the province grew by 9.74% from November 1996 to August 2000. That exceeds the overall population growth of 7.21% for that period, indicating that the quality of information continues to improve.

It is necessary to obtain a limited amount of personal information to facilitate the identification of electors in order to revise the Register electronically. This information is provided by electors on an optional basis. Following the conclusion of the Confirmation Period, 80% of electors had provided dates of birth and 93% had provided gender information. It is important to note that this information is used internally for administrative purposes only, and does not appear on Lists of Electors. Appropriate safeguards have been established to ensure that private information is kept strictly confidential.

Telephone numbers, which are also provided on an optional basis, were provided by 74% of electors. Telephone numbers appear on the Lists of Electors, so electors were notified of this use and asked to provide only telephone numbers that are publicly listed in telephone directories.

A breakdown, by electoral division, illustrating optional information currently contained in the Register is shown on Table 2 on page 10.

Advertising

Advertisements were placed in newspapers of general circulation to inform electors of the Confirmation Process. Weekly advertisements included information on voter eligibility, electoral division boundaries, timelines for data collection, and the purpose of the data collection. The advertisements included a telephone number for electors to contact with questions or concerns. Toll-free access was available during the Confirmation Process to assist electors outside of the Edmonton calling area.

Financial Analysis

The breakdown of costs for the 2000 Confirmation Process will appear in the financial addendum to this Report.

2001 PROVINCIAL GENERAL ELECTION

Overview

The election was conducted on the electoral divisions established by the Electoral Divisions Act. The boundaries were established based on the recommendations of the 1995/1996 Alberta Electoral Boundaries Commission.

Returning Officers were appointed by Order in Council for the purpose of or in connection with elections, enumerations, and plebiscites under the Election Act.

Order in Council 87/2001 dissolved the Twenty-fourth Legislative Assembly of Alberta on February 12, 2001, and ordered the Chief Electoral Officer to issue Writs of Election to each of the eighty-three Returning Officers listed on page 41 of this report, pursuant to Section 37 of the Election Act.

Election Training

Returning Officers and Election Clerks received training to prepare them for their responsibilities. They received appropriate resources to provide standardized training to Supervisory Deputy Returning Officers and Deputy Returning Officers. As in past elections, Poll Clerks were briefed on their responsibilities by the Deputy Returning Officers and followed the directions provided in the updated "Guide for Polling Place Officials".

Mapping Resources

The maps reviewed by Returning Officers in July 2000 were used in advertisements and posted at the polling places. Maps had been updated with new civic address data, where available, to ensure currency and accuracy.

In accordance with legislation, maps of each electoral division were advertised in newspapers of general circulation on two occasions during the election period. The first advertisement appeared in the week of February 19, and included Election Proclamations, Returning Officers' office hours and contact information, qualifications for Special Ballot voters, and information regarding the availability of level access in the Returning Officers' offices and advance polling places.

The second advertisement appeared in the week of March 5, and included information on regular, advance and Special Ballot polls, along with the polling place maps.

Both advertisements appeared as inserts in the Edmonton and Calgary daily newspapers. They included information for electoral divisions that shared a boundary with the cities, along with the electoral divisions within the two cities. As an added service, the second insert was hand-delivered to all residences of non-subscribers in Edmonton and Calgary to best disseminate information to all electors.

Additional banner advertisements were published throughout the election period to encourage electors to obtain necessary polling day information from the Voter Information Centre. The advertisements appeared in five daily newspapers outside the Edmonton/Calgary area, in one hundred twenty-nine weekly newspapers, and in fourteen ethnic newspapers.

Elector Information

Electors received information throughout the election period from a number of sources. Information was compiled and made available on a timely basis, given that all activities in the electoral cycle must follow the issuance of the Writs of Election.

Returning Officers secured office space as soon as the Writs were issued, and contact information for them was available two days later.

Polling places were selected after the issuance of the Writs and were available to callers within the first week of the election period.

Candidates' nominations closed at 2:00 p.m. on the fourteenth day following the issuance of the Writs, and a complete listing of candidates was available on the website two hours later.

Elections Alberta's website provided answers to commonly asked questions regarding eligibility criteria and availability of voter assistance. It included statistical information from previous events, an election calendar highlighting the key dates in the election period, contact information for Returning Officers across the province, and a listing of candidates for each electoral division. The website was accessed frequently and will be expanded to provide additional information during the next electoral event. Many electors used the email address provided to communicate their questions and suggestions to Elections Alberta.

Returning Officers' offices were open six days of the week, Monday through Saturday, and offered extended hours on key dates.

The Voter Information Centre handled over twenty-four thousand calls throughout the election period, including four thousand on Polling Day. Operators were available weekdays from 8:15 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., and Saturdays from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Operators answered general inquiries and directed electors to their polling places.

Election Calendar

The election calendar posted on the website highlighted the following key dates.

Monday, February 12, 2001	Issuance of the Writs of Election to Returning Officers in the eighty-three electoral divisions
Saturday, February 17	First day for electors to be added to the Lists of Electors in the Returning Officers' offices (start of Revisions Period)

Saturday, March 10	Third day to vote in the Advance Polls (9:00 AM to 8:00 PM)
Monday, March 12	Polling Day (9:00 AM to 8:00 PM)

Legislative and Procedural Changes

A legislative change passed in May 2000 directed that all registered political parties were entitled to receive an updated List of Electors in the fourth and fifth year following the preceding Provincial General Election. Lists of Electors were made available to all registered political parties, upon request, in November 2000, the fourth year following the 1997 Provincial General Election. Because no changes were made to the Lists of Electors prior to the March 2001 Provincial General Election, no additional Lists were provided to political parties for campaign use.

The Alberta Register of Electors System (AROES), used to manage Register data, provided computerized assistance to Returning Officers in the management of the election. Returning Officers assigned all polling subdivisions to polling places, which allowed all users of the system to access polling place information for the entire province. This innovation enabled electors to determine their polling place by calling any one of the eighty-three Returning Officers' offices, instead of having to first identify the Returning Officer responsible for their electoral division. AROES also facilitated the preparation of prescribed forms and staffing reports.

Cell phone usage in polling places was prohibited to avoid unnecessary distraction. During the previous election, cell phones became quite intrusive in busy polling places, to the point that it was sometimes difficult for election officials to communicate effectively with electors. The blanket prohibition ensured that all election officials and scrutineers were governed by the same rules.

An important legislative change occurred in regard to the issuance of Special Ballots. These ballots are issued to electors who are unable to vote at the advance polls, or on Polling Day, due to:

- physical incapacity,
- absence from the electoral division,
- being an eligible prison inmate,
- being an election official, candidate, official agent or scrutineer whose official duties require their attendance at a polling place other than their own,
- being resident in a remote area, or
- other circumstances prescribed by the Chief Electoral Officer.

Previously, electors who wished to request a Special Ballot had to be on the List of Electors. Further to a legislative change enacted in 1998, electors could be added to the List of Electors following the submission of a properly completed Special Ballot application. They were also given the opportunity to add their names to the Register of Electors, to ensure their names would appear on subsequent Lists of Electors extracted from the Register.

For the first time, inmates serving terms of ten days or less, and those who were incarcerated for non-payment of fines, were eligible to vote. Inmates were required to vote in the electoral division in which they were ordinarily resident, as is the case with all electors. Eligible inmates were provided with Special Ballots upon request.

The Special Ballot system was also used to provide a secure voting environment to electors who felt that their safety would be compromised by the inclusion of their name on a List of Electors or their attendance at a polling place. These electors were assigned a number by the Chief Electoral Officer, which appeared in the Poll Book and on the List of Electors in lieu of their name.

Following the election, candidates and official agents were authorized by legislation to request photocopies of the Poll Books completed on the Polling Day. The photocopies are made available on a cost-recovery basis, on request.

Nominated Candidates

Nomination day was Monday, February 26. That was the last day on which prospective candidates were able to file nomination papers with the Returning Officer in the electoral division in which they wished to contest the election.

By 2:00 p.m., when nominations closed, 318 candidates had filed nomination papers. The distribution of candidates by political party affiliation follows:

Alberta First Party	16
Alberta Greens	10
Alberta Liberal Party	83
Alberta New Democratic Party	83
Alberta Social Credit Party	12
Communist Party-Alberta	2
Progressive Conservative Association of Alberta	83
Independent	29

The complete list of nominated candidates was posted to the Elections Alberta website two hours after the close of nominations across the province.

No candidate withdrew following the close of nominations and no candidate was elected by acclamation.

Special Ballot Polls

By legislation, a Special Ballot poll was established in each of the eighty-three electoral divisions. The poll is established to facilitate voting for electors who are not able to vote at the advance poll, or on Polling Day. It is often used by electors who are travelling, working, or studying away from their own electoral division for extended periods. Availability of the Special Ballot was advertised in newspapers and on the website.

It is often viewed as a mail-in ballot, but ballots may also be completed in the Returning Officer's office or hand-delivered by an individual at the elector's request. While every effort is made to facilitate the provision of Special Ballots to electors, it is a legislative requirement that an elector must request his or her own Special Ballot: it cannot be requested on his or her behalf. This is to ensure that the Special Ballot is issued to, and completed by, the appropriate elector.

The Special Ballot uses a series of envelopes to protect the confidentiality of the ballot, and contains an elector's declaration identifying the reason for use, along with an undertaking confirming that the elector has not yet voted and will not vote a second time.

Returning Officers sent Special Ballots throughout the province and even out of the country. Electors were able to request a Special Ballot at the beginning of the election period, and were able to vote for the candidate or political party of their choice. This helped to ensure that electors had adequate time to complete and return the Special Ballot by the close of polls on Polling Day.

In the same way that each elector must vote within their own electoral division, each elector was required to request a Special Ballot from the Returning Officer in his or her own electoral division, and to return it to the office from which it was issued.

A total of 11,100 Special Ballots were received by the close of polls on Polling Day.

Advance Polls

By legislation, advance polls were established in at least one, and not more than four, locations in each electoral division on the Thursday, Friday and Saturday prior to Polling Day. Advance polls were open from 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. on March 8th, 9th, and 10th. All advance polls offered level access.

These polls were established to accommodate electors who were unable to vote on Polling Day due to:

- physical incapacity,
- absence, or
- being an election official, candidate, official agent or scrutineer whose official duties preclude their attendance at the polling place established for their own polling subdivision.

A total of 45,796 ballots were cast at 161 advance polls.

Mobile Polls

By legislation, mobile polls were established on Polling Day in seniors' lodges, seniors' residences, and treatment centres with ten or more residents or inpatients, where consultation with facility staff deemed the service to be appropriate.

Mobile polls accommodated electors in these facilities during hours deemed appropriate by facility staff, and were conducted in a fixed location, or by going bed-to-bed, or using both methods.

All electors identified by the facility staff as being well enough to vote are eligible to vote in the electoral division in which the facility is located. In accordance with legislation, facility staff sometimes restricted participation to the deputy returning officer, poll clerk, interpreter, and facility representative, if appropriate for the well-being of the residents or inpatients.

A total of 16,713 ballots were cast at 175 mobile polls.

Polling Day

By legislation, polls were open from 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. on Monday, March 12, 2001. There were 5,157 polling stations established across the province, each staffed by a Deputy Returning Officer and Poll Clerk. Supervisory Deputy Returning Officers were hired in polling places with multiple polling stations to assist in directing electors to the correct polling station.

Poll workers were responsible for taking the vote, swearing-in electors whose names did not appear on the Lists of Electors, recording necessary changes to the Lists of Electors, conducting the unofficial count and returning all polling day material to the Returning Officers in a secure manner.

Poll workers were also responsible for answering electors' inquiries and for working with the scrutineers appointed by candidates to observe Polling Day proceedings. Both poll workers and scrutineers are to be commended for their cooperative efforts in ensuring fairness and transparency in the process.

The role of poll workers has been expanded to include the collection of information that will be used in updating the Register of Electors. Polling Day is an excellent opportunity to collect new and updated information from electors for use in refreshing the Register and subsequent Lists of Electors.

At the close of polls, poll workers conducted the unofficial count and telephoned results to the Returning Officers. All results were communicated in a timely manner and were made available in Returning Officers' offices.

Additions to the Lists of Electors

A total of 113,550 electors were added to the Lists of Electors during the Revisions Period and on Polling Day. This figure represents electors who were not included during the Confirmation Process, and those who moved or attained the age, residency, or citizenship eligibility criteria following the Confirmation Process.

On average, twenty-two electors were sworn in at each regular polling station. Areas of high mobility, or significant recent growth, experienced the highest number of additions.

The Register of Electors contained 1,648,473 names in 1996, following the November 1996 Provincial General Enumeration. The number of names increased to 1,761,970 after the March 1997 Provincial General Election, which included names added during the Revisions Period and on Polling Day.

At the end of the August/September Confirmation Process, the names of 1,809,171 electors appeared in the Register of Electors. The names of those electors appeared on the Lists of Electors that were distributed to registered political parties in November 2000. The breakdown by electoral division is shown on Table 1 on page 7.

The number of names increased following the March 2001 Provincial General Election to 1,922,721, which represents the number of names on the Lists of Electors at the close of polls on Polling Day.

At May 2001, the number of names had been reduced to 1,902,906 after electors' names were removed from old addresses, and after deletions were made at electors' requests following out-of-province moves. This reduction is also partially attributable to the number of electors who withheld consent for participation in the Register of Electors.

In order to receive a ballot, an elector's name must appear on the List of Electors. It is not mandatory, however, to participate in the Register of Electors. Electors were encouraged to participate to increase the accuracy of future Lists and to reduce the number of electors having to swear-in to vote at the next electoral event. Still, some electors prefer not to have their names included in the Register on an ongoing basis. This is one of the reasons that a certain number of Polling Day swear-ins must be anticipated at all electoral events.

Accuracy of the Lists of Electors

Accurate, current Lists of Electors are essential both for campaigning and effective Polling Day administration. The Lists of Electors distributed to registered political parties in November 2000, and subsequently used at the polls, were compared to the post-election Lists produced in May 2001 to gauge accuracy.

It is recognized that an indeterminate number of eligible electors actively choose not to participate in the electoral process, so it is acknowledged that the List of Electors does not contain every eligible elector. At the same time, a benchmark must be established to gauge accuracy. For that reason, the assumption is made that the post-election Lists of Electors are one-hundred percent accurate, since they include all electors who had provided information during the Confirmation Process, the Revisions Period, or on Polling Day.

Table 1 on page 7 illustrates the accuracy of the November 2000 Lists of Electors in comparison to the post-election Lists. Overall, the Lists were found to be 95.1% accurate. Only 4.9% of electors that appeared on the May 2001 Lists of Electors were added during the Revisions Period and on Polling Day.

Official Results

The Official Results were announced by each of the eighty-three Returning Officers on Thursday, March 22.

No judicial recount or appeal, pursuant to Section 142 of the Election Act, was applied for in any electoral division. No controverted election petition was filed for the election.

Publication

Names of the eighty-three newly elected Members of the Legislative Assembly were published in the Alberta Gazette on April 14, 2001 in accordance with Section 147 of the Election Act. A complete listing is provided on page 23.

Custody and Inspection of Election Documents

All Polling Day documentation was returned to Elections Alberta following the announcement of the Official Results, in accordance with Section 140 of the Election Act.

Section 149 authorizes candidates and their official agents to review all Polling Day documentation for their electoral division, with the exception of ballots, in the thirty-day period following the publication of the names of Members of the Legislative Assembly in the Alberta Gazette.

Continuous Register of Electors Management

Elector information collected throughout the election period and on Polling Day was incorporated into the Register of Electors, where permission was granted by the elector, for preparation of future Lists of Electors.

Lists were updated following the election and distributed to registered political parties and Members of the Legislative Assembly for their use under Section 16(1) of the Election Act. Restrictions for use are contained at Section 17, to ensure elector information is used appropriately. Penalties for misuse include fines up to $100,000, or terms of imprisonment up to one year, or both.

Section 17 now directs that both registered political parties and Members of the Legislative Assembly receive updated Lists on a regular basis. Updated Lists must be provided immediately after the election, two years after the election, during the fourth and fifth years following the election, and following any updates made to the Register subsequent to revisions to electoral division boundaries.

With any large database, it is a major challenge to compare and correct entries against another data set. It is particularly challenging when some entries cannot be matched conclusively because of incomplete information. This is particularly difficult in the case of common names where birth date and previous address information is unavailable.

Maintaining the accuracy and currency of these Lists of Electors will be a significant challenge and a focal point of activities at Elections Alberta. Possible data sources are being reviewed for use in updating Register information on an ongoing basis. These activities must reconcile the need for updated information with the electors' rights to privacy.

Candidates' Deposits

A total of 204 candidates' deposits of $200 were forfeited. Forfeiture occurred when unsuccessful candidates received less than fifty percent of the votes received by the winning candidate. A breakdown follows:

	Number Nominated	Number Forfeited
Alberta First Party	16	16
Alberta Greens	10	10
Alberta Liberal Party	83	55
Alberta New Democratic Party	83	80
Alberta Social Credit Party	12	12
Communist Party-Alberta	2	2
Progressive Conservative Association of Alberta	83	0
Independent	29	29
Total	318	204

The forfeited amount of $40,800 was paid through Elections Alberta to the Provincial Treasurer for deposit to the General Revenue Fund.

Campaign Period Financial Statements

Candidates' campaign period financial statements must be filed with Elections Alberta by July 12, 2001, four months after Polling Day. Details of expenses incurred by each candidate will be published in a newspaper circulated in the electoral division of that candidate.

Political parties' campaign period financial statements must be filed with Elections Alberta by September 12, 2001, six months after Polling Day.

Copies of all financial statements are placed on the Public Files maintained by Elections Alberta and are available for examination during normal office hours. The Twenty-fourth Annual Report of the Chief Electoral Officer will provide details on all campaign period financial statements.

Remarks of the Chief Electoral Officer

The electoral activities conducted over the past year are perfect examples of successful teamwork. An enormous group of electors contributed in various ways to the successful conduct of the Confirmation Process and Provincial General Election. We owe a vote of thanks to everyone: to the Confirmation Officials who collected information door-to-door; to the election officials who worked at least a twelve-hour day on Polling Day to provide direct voter assistance; to the political parties and candidates who offered their time and talents to provide the electorate with choices; and to their scrutineers who were the eyes and ears of the candidates on Polling Day.

Special thanks go out to the Returning Officers who hired and managed staff complements that were sometimes in the hundreds. Their tireless efforts helped to ensure that the enormity of administrative detail behind the Polling Day machine was virtually invisible, so the focus could appropriately be directed towards the candidates and their campaigns. Each staff member at Elections Alberta is also to be commended for their commitment and support of all clients throughout the election period.

Many people actively participate because of the value they see in this task. Confirmation and election officials are paid for their work, but will never get rich from the remuneration. Many people regularly work the elections at the provincial, municipal and federal levels; and many have done so over the years because they recognize the importance of this role and enjoy the Polling Day excitement.

Our task is to prepare a professional, capable work force of about seventeen thousand through standardized training and detailed instruction. Our task is also to provide effective resources to both our workers and our clients: the registered political parties, candidates and, ultimately, the electors.

Public notification of these events continues to be a challenge for us. It is not easy to get timely, accurate information into the hands of almost two million electors. This challenge is compounded by the compressed timelines of electoral events. Deadlines approach quickly and electors must be aware of these activities early on so they are able to participate.

Over the past years, we have increased our advertising, our Internet presence, and our availability by telephone through the Voter Information Centre. These initiatives would not have been possible without the approval and support of the Standing Committee on Legislative Offices. I look forward to working with the Committee, and with all clients, to provide continuous improvements in service delivery to the electors of the Province.

Statements of Official Results

The following poll-by-poll results have been taken directly from the Statements of Official Results completed by Returning Officers in the eighty-three electoral divisions across the province.

The maps shown are those described by the Electoral Divisions Act. The polling subdivision numbers refer to the geographic areas identified on each of the maps.

Poll-by-poll results include the number of valid ballots cast for each candidate, along with the number of spoiled, declined, and rejected ballots.

- Valid ballots are those that are clearly marked for one candidate in accordance with Section 108 of the Election Act.
- Rejected ballots are those that cannot be counted because the elector's intent was unclear, or because no candidates, or more than one candidate, was selected.
- A spoiled ballot is one that was marked incorrectly by an elector, who then obtained a replacement ballot from the Deputy Returning Officer. Spoiled ballots are not placed in the ballot box for counting.
- A declined ballot is one that was returned by an elector, who chose not to vote for any candidate listed on the ballot.

Poll-by-poll results display the number of eligible electors, including all electors who were on the November 2000 List of Electors, those who were added during the Revisions Period, and those who were added by swearing-in on Polling Day. The percentage of voter turnout is calculated based on the total number of eligible electors at the close of the polls on Polling Day.
